Competition Requirements

This show will be conducted and judged in accordance with the United States Rules for Working Equitation. The rules can be found at the following site: <https://usawe.org/rules>. It is the competitor's responsibility to read and understand the rules prior to the competition.

All competitors holding a membership with USAWE may compete. Non-members are allowed to only compete as hors concours (schooling rides).

Competitors interested in being eligible for lifetime medal awards and year-end awards must be USAWE members.

Membership application: <https://usawe.org/membership/current-members/>

All competing horses must be recorded with USAWE in advance of the show. A one-time fee of $30 per horse includes lifetime performance tracking.

Horse recording form: <https://usawe.org/competitions/record-your-horse/>

Riders with disabilities can apply for a Dispensation Certificate that approves the use of adaptive equipment and other allowances.

Dispensation Certificate <https://usawe.org/competitions/competitions-resources/>

A single horse and rider team is allowed to show in only one level. A horse may be entered twice in a competition if ridden by two different riders and in different levels. Exception: Two youths or one youth and one adult can share the same horse if competing in Level 1. See Rulebook, Section 1.8.

In USAWE-licensed competitions, a rider must compete in the classification designated on their USAWE membership application, i.e.,

- Youth: Riders between the ages of 7 and 17 as of January 1.
- Amateur: Non-professional riders.
- Open: Open to all riders. Professional riders may only compete in the Open division. See USAWE Competition Manual, section 2.3 for further explanation.

Riders must be correctly attired, and horses properly presented in accordance with the U.S. Rules for Working Equitation. Show Management may, at its discretion, bar any person or horse from entering the arena if not suitably presented.

Cattle Trial

The Cattle Trial is optional and open to L2-L7 competitors. Experienced turnback riders will assist individual competitors. A portion of the Cattle Trial entry fee will go into a jackpot and the jackpot will go to the winner of the Cattle Trial. The cattle will be patterned directly before the Cattle Trial and we encourage all competitors participating to observe the cattle being moved around the arena.

Progressive Barn Party

Friday May 23, 6:00 PM. Please join us, in the barn, Friday evening for a chance to kick back, relax, and visit with old and new friends. Please bring your favorite dish, drink and/or dessert to share for a fun evening.

Warm Up Arena Etiquette

As our WE competitions have become larger, the warmup paddock can be a very dangerous place: riders are preoccupied with their horses, and horses can be nervous. To ensure a Safe Warmup Paddock, the Paddock Steward is responsible for monitoring the warmup paddock. Common sense and courtesy can help avoid accidents.

- Only competitors, trainers/coaches, or handlers of horses being prepared are allowed in the paddock. No other pedestrians are allowed.
- Horses going around the perimeter of the arena should ideally be moving in the same direction. Slower horses move to the inside. If horses are traveling in opposite directions, the passing rule is left shoulder to left shoulder.
- No lunging in the warmup paddock while riders are present. Use of a lunge whip should be limited, as cracking the whip can cause dangerous behavior in horses not used to the noise.
- Ponying is not allowed.
- Unruly horses must be removed from the warmup arena.
- No disruptive behavior from horses or humans can be allowed.

Rules and Regulations

Hold Harmless Clause: Understanding that horse sports may be hazardous and dangerous, even leading to permanent injury or death, each owner, rider, spectator, and other participant assumes any and all risk of loss or injury and agrees to hold harmless, regardless, the horse show personnel and the facility hosting

These likenesses shall not be used to advertise a product and they may not be used in any way to jeopardize amateur status.
